ROSENWALD'S

LARGE CROWD ATTENDS LIBERTY LOAN CONCERT

The program given by the Liberty Loan Concert company under the auspices of the Santa Fe reading room in the high school auditorium last night was well attended. Following the first number of the program C. M. Botts and M. E. Hickey, members of the Four Minute Men's organization, spoke. Both made a last appeal to the audience to buy liberty bonds. Mr. Botts said that America was contending for the same principles now that she did during the revolutionary war, only multiplied one thousandfold. "If you take the bonds," said Mr. Hickey, "you are doing your bit to down the kaiser." Misses Margaret McCanna, Myrl Hope, Laurene Asselin, Julia Keisher, Genevieve Tierney, Katherine Keisher, Mrs. Lester Cooper and Miss Eleanor Vaughney then passed through the audience taking subscriptions. Vocal, piano and violin solos, together with a monologue by Miss Loretta L. Payson, made up the greater part of the concert numbers.

DINWIDDIE WILL GIVE PROHIBITION LECTURE AT THE HIGH SCHOOL

All the churches have agreed to discontinue services tonight for the prohibition lecture to be given by Dr. E. C. Dinwiddie, legislative superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of America, at the high school auditorium. The lecture will begin at 8 o'clock. Dr. Dinwiddie has lived in Washington, D. C., for several years, where he has been working in the interest of prohibition. He has a national reputation as a speaker.

The prohibition meeting held at the North Fourth street school house last night was well attended. J. R. Moore, Atanacio Montoya and Superintendent John Milne were the speakers of the evening. Music by the Indian school band and singing by the children of the school made up the remainder of the program.

were married yesterday by Justice of the Peace Pedro J. Martin at his office in the court house.

John Fleming, local distributor for the Haynes motor cars, returned to the city yesterday after a business trip to the eastern section of the state and to Santa Fe. He reports good business.

Frank Jones, employee of the American Smelting and Refining company at Hayden, Ariz., stopped in Albuquerque yesterday, coming from a trip east to visit his parents and sister, Mrs. Cortez Quichel. He left for Hayden last night.

There will be a meeting of Albuquerque Encampment No. 4, I. O. O. F., Monday night at 7:30 o'clock to confer degrees on a class of candidates. It is desired that all who have put in their applications be present. All members are requested to be on hand. Visiting members are welcome.

Ladies who are friends of the small boys of St. Anthony's orphanage will meet there on November 8 to make comforts for them. There are 118 little fellows in the institution now and they are short of bedclothes. All ladies are invited to take part in the comfort making. It is hoped that many will take part.

A shed in the rear of 600 North Second street was destroyed by a fire which was discovered shortly before 3 o'clock yesterday morning. One shed had burned to the ground when the firemen reached the place and the other was burning. Chief Fred M. Russell said the fire probably was started by hot ashes.

The Salvation army services will be held in the Salvation Army hall today as follows: 11 a. m., Holiness meeting; 2 p. m., Sunday school; 8:15 p. m., Young People's League, led by the "Life Saving Guards." An evangelistic meeting will be held at 8 o'clock in the evening. Street meetings will precede each service. The general public is invited.

NEW WRIGHT TRADING POST WILL BE OPENED FOR BUSINESS TUESDAY

The new Wright Trading Post at the southeast corner of Fourth street and Gold avenue will be open for business Tuesday morning, C. A. Wright, the proprietor, announced yesterday. The moving of the stock of Indian curios from the building at 221-223 West Gold avenue, temporarily occupied by the trading post, was begun yesterday and will be finished before that time.

While the new trading post will be open to the public Tuesday morning the formal opening will not take place until later, Mr. Wright had not decided upon the time. That event will be featured by Indian dances.

SPECIAL DELICIOUS CHICKEN SUNDAY DINNER. Fifty cents. Colorado Cafe. COLORADO TROOPS HERE ON WAY TO LINDA VISTA

A train carrying fifteen cars of Colorado troops from Fort Riley, Kans., to Linda Vista, Calif., arrived in Albuquerque at 10:10 o'clock last night and left an hour later.

Citizens received rumors that the train would arrive yesterday afternoon and assembled at the station several times yesterday evening in the hope that some of the New Mexico members of the national army would be on the train. On account of the government's order to censor troop movements no announcement of the arriving time was made. Consequently, when the train arrived the crowd had thinned. Regardless of the late hour, however, many assembled and were at the station when the soldiers left.
